

Government Contracts Orientation

This is an orientation to government contracting at the federal, state and local level. Our trainers help remove the intimidation factor, confusion and complexity and show you how to succeed in government contracting. Begin building your business base and get high quality professional help while doing it.

This workshop is FREE and our speaker is George Kitamura from the Center for Government Contracting of the North Texas SBDC.

This workshop is sponsored by the Navarro College SBDC in partnership with the U.S. Small Business Administration.
