

How to Get Government Contracts

The government contracting process at the federal, state and local level is simple.

Your keys to success are in understanding the unique aspects, and how much help is available to you.

Our instructor removes the intimidation factor, confusion and complexity and shows you how to succeed in government contracting. Learn how the SBA 8 (a) program assists socio-economically disadvantaged businesses acquire government agency contracts, and how to become eligible during this workshop, we will show you how to complete the Central Contractor Registration and obtain as a minimum, a confirmation number.

The cost of this workshop is $25.00 and our speaker is George Kitamura from the Center for Government Contracting of the North Texas SBDC.

This workshop is sponsored by the Navarro College SBDC in partnership with the U.S. Small Business Administration.
